

Report on Legal Rights of Women 08.02.2024

The Gender Sensitization Programme organized by the Women Development Cell of Kandaswami Kandar's College on 08.02.2024 at 2:00 pm focused on enlightening the students about the legal rights of women. Mrs. R. Loga, an Advocate from Paramathi Court, graced the occasion as the chief guest. Dr. P. Thamizhchelvi, Associate Professor and Head of the Department of History, and a member of the Women Development Cell extended a warm welcome to the esteemed gathering.

The event was kicked off with great enthusiasm as Dr. P. Shanthi, the esteemed Principal of our college, delivered the presidential address, effectively setting the tone for the proceedings. Her dynamic presence and insightful words captivated the audience, emphasizing the significance of her role in guiding the event's direction. Dr. S. Parvathi, Associate Professor and Convener of the Women Development Cell, introduced the chief guest, highlighting her expertise and accomplishments.

Mrs. Loga stressed the importance of empowering women by equipping them with knowledge about their legal rights. Empowerment enables women to assert themselves, make informed decisions, and challenge instances of discrimination and injustice. She highlighted the importance of understanding the legal framework that protects women's rights in India, which enabling them to assert themselves confidently in various spheres of life.

Mrs. Loga emphasized the accessibility of legal mechanisms such as the criminal justice system, civil courts, and specialized laws like the Domestic Violence Act as means for women to address issues of violence, discrimination, and inequality. Her speech stressed the need for laws and legal interpretations that ensure equal treatment of women under the law, advocating for reforms that address systemic discrimination and biases against women in society.

Her speech also underscored the significance of legal literacy among women. By understanding their rights and the legal mechanisms available to protect them, women can effectively navigate legal systems and seek redress for violations of their rights.

Dr. B. Kavitha, Assistant Professor of Commerce and a member of the Women Development Cell, extended the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the chief guest and all participants for their valuable contributions. Dr. M. Aruna Rani, Assistant Professor of Economics, skillfully conducted the proceedings as the Master of Ceremony, ensuring the event's smooth flow. 460 students benefitted from the programme.
