

Report on Women's Day Celebration 08.03.2022

To raise awareness about the status, rights and dignity of the women among the students International women's day was celebrated on behalf of the women's Development Cell at Kandaswami Kandar's college.

To instigate girl students many competitions like Poem writing, fireless cooking, Rangoli, Pick and Speak, and Art from waste were conducted. Many girl students had participated actively in it.

Likewise to amuse women Teachers and women non- Teaching staff many events like Lucky corner, Passing the ball and throw ball were conducted. Almost all the women teaching and non-teaching staff participated excitedly. The Women's day Celebration programme on 08.03.2022 begin with Tamil Thai vazhthu from the students, followed by the lighting of the lamp, Dr.P.Sanathi, Associate Professor of English, Former syndicate member of Periyar University welcomed the august gathering. Our beloved principal Dr.N. Thangaraj, gave a presidential address

Dr.S. Parvathi , Assistant Professor of Economics, Convener, Women Development Cell, Introduced the Chief guest. Mrs N. Sasireka, B.E., Assistant Commissioner, Department of Commercial Tax,Namakkal.

The Chief guest was honoured by our principal with Memento and shawl, then Mrs. N. Sasireka, B.E., Assistant Commissioner, Department of Commercial Tax, Namakkal. delivered a special address. She shared her experience with the students regarding how to crack competitive exams like UPSC, TNPSC, SSC and so on. In her speech she brief out how women are augmented with talents, even women as house maker how she articulates various skills like as a human resource manager how she manages her family members, as a budget planner how she prepares budget of her family based an expected income and expenditure. As a financial manager how she manages household fiancé and so on. She also explained how to be an empowered women. Her speech inspired our student community. 491 girl students from Aided wing took part in the programme.

The student winners were appreciated with certificates and prizes like wise the memento were also given to Teaching and non-teaching women staffs.

cultural events were conducted as a part of the programme, many girls students performed our traditional dances like Karagattam, Bharatnatyam, Dandiya and so on.

Finally, the programme was ended with a vote of thanks by Mrs. K. Usha, Spl. Gr. Steno typist and the National anthem. Nutritious Refreshments were distributed to both students and staff members.