A Journey through past Memories

The event witnessed the participation of many enthusiastic alumni who fondly recalled their memorable moments and experiences at the prestigious institution.

Advocate Nethaji Kaviyarasu highlighted that consistent hard work and dedication are the essential foundations of success.

Mr. V.Yuvaraja, currently serving as a Government School Teacher, shared his cherished memories and assured his academic guidance and support to the students.

Mr.K.Senthilkumar, Sri Krishna Metal Mart Owner reflected on his college life and spoke about how his efforts and experiences shaped his journey to his present role.

Mrs Kalaiselvi, Textile management, also reminisced about her time at the institution and motivated students to stay committed to their studies to achieve a successful future.

Mrs. Revathi, a teacher, shared her memories and promised academic guidance and support to the students.

Celebrating Togetherness

The program featured a delightful cultural program presented by both students and alumni, followed by a group photo session commemorating the event. A delicious lunch was served near the classroom, after which alumni reconnected and discussed future initiatives.

A Memorable Farewell

The alumni were then taken on a nostalgic campus tour. Over 26 alumni, including both men and women, participated in this successful event. Faculty members of the department ensured all arrangements ran smoothly. The program concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Mr. M. Prabu, Assistant Professor of History.
