Department of History
Report in Inaugural function 14.02.2024

The inaugural function of the History Association commenced with a warm welcome address delivered by Miss V. Gugapriya, the association's Secretary and a student of III B.A History. She extended a heartfelt welcome to all the dignitaries, faculty members, and fellow students gathered for the occasion.

Following the welcome address, Dr. P. Santhi, the Principal of Kandaswami Kandar's College, Velur, delivered the presidential address. With her vast experience and academic credentials. Dr. Santhi provided insightful perspectives on the importance of historical studies and the role of such associations in fostering academic growth.

Dr. R. Somasundaram, the President & Secretary of Kandaswami Kandar's Trust and Educational Institutions, graced the occasion with felicitations, acknowledging the significance of promoting historical awareness and education within the academic community.

Dr. P. Thamizhchelvi, Associate Professor and Head of the Department of History, Kandaswami Kandar's College, Velur, had the honor of introducing the distinguished Chief Guest, Dr. P. Prakash. In her introduction, she underscored Dr. Prakash's significant contributions to the field of history and emphasized his pivotal role in nurturing the intellectual growth of students.

Dr. P. Prakash, Associate Professor of History at Thiruvalluvar Government Arts College, Rasipuram, took the podium to deliver the inaugural address. In his eloquent speech, he illuminated the dynamic nature of historical studies, offering profound insights into its ever-changing landscape. Dr. Prakash underscored the imperative for students to approach the study of history with a critical lens, urging them to delve deep into the complexities of the past. His address served as a beacon, guiding students toward a deeper understanding of historical events and their broader implications. By emphasizing the importance of critical engagement with history, Dr. Prakash instilled in the audience a sense of responsibility to interrogate the past and glean valuable lessons for the present and future.

Mr. R.V. Kishor, Joint Secretary of the History Association and a student of II B.A History, extended a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all the dignitaries, faculty and students for their participation and support in making the inaugural function a success.

The ceremony concluded with the rendition of the National Anthem, symbolizing unity and patriotism among the attendees. The inaugural function provided a platform for intellectual exchange and set the tone for a fruitful academic year ahead. All UG & PG History students actively took part on the event.
