departments. Offering elective courses between departments. Each department's students can choose an elective or interdepartmental course from another department within the same institution. Each department's students also enrol in elective and cross-disciplinary courses provided by other departments, enabling an interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary approach to learning.

- A holistic view of cross-cutting issues is provided to all undergraduate students through courses such as Environmental Studies, Yoga, and Fundamentals of Human Rights.
- Value-added courses that are given by several departments and taken by students from the parent department and other departments help to support the multi- or interdisciplinary approach to academics.
- The students took part in internship programmes to experience the real-world requirements.

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

With the adherence to the University of Periyar University Norms, the Kandaswami Kandar's College is assuring excellent curriculum delivery through a well-planned & documented procedure while the College Calendar is being created. Early in the academic year, the curriculum is carefully planned out with the aid of an IQAC, academic Council and curriculum development council.

Each department discussed and decided all aspects of academic activities, such as subject allocation design, lesson plan structure, work schedules, practical schedules, departmental academic success, etc.

The HODs are in charge of updating and restructuring the subject materials that have been created by the relevant subject faculties. It is also deployed well to provide lectures using Blackboard, PowerPoint presentations, YouTube videos, and electronic content. The online classroom methodology has been used, with the aid of technology growth, as we were in the epidemic period. The students were required to attend seminars and webinars, PPTs, and video lectures in order to develop their expertise. The IQAC contribute to the updating of practise by offering advice and corrections for the creation of curriculum practises. The college offered a variety of experiential learning techniques and courses that were duly documented

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

The institution adheres to the university calendar because it is affiliated with Periyar University Salem. The academic calendar committee works out the year's schedule strictly following the instructions given by IQAC and other committees. A well-designed calendar is distributed to the students, faculty, and support staff at the start of each year.

A brief history of the college, its vision and mission statements, the national anthem, the college emblem, and its meaning are displayed in it.

The names of the departments' faculty, staff, and programme officers for co-curricular and extracurricular activities, as well as other pertinent information, are all included in the academic calendar.

Additionally, it discloses the terms of the scholarship. It also describes the college's amenities, such as the student cooperative store and the forums.

It provides information about

- working days and the recommended day order
- important details regarding student conduct,
- leave policies,
- regulation for using the college library
- university-mandated attendance requirements,

- dates for the examination and the fee payment period
- last date for submission of exam applications
- last date for payment of the exam fee
- schedule for CIE
- commencement of university exams

It is posted on the college website. The calendar lists the working hours for both aided and self-financed courses, including tea breaks. It informs the rules and regulations, code of conduct, attendance policies, and leave policies of the college.

The college internal examination cell conducts two midterms and one model exam after 40, 60, and 75 working days, respectively.

1.3 - Curriculum Enrichment

1.3.1 - Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability into the Curriculum

The course material seeks to incorporate knowledge on subjects such as human values, professional ethics, yoga, speaking and communication abilities, environment protection, and laws and regulations for driving safety, and plans conferences, seminars, and workshops on these subjects to integrate social issues into the curriculum. These courses aid students in inculcating the values that act as their moral compass.

The College recognises the need to ensure human values and offers a course on "Human Rights". The college's NSS, NCC, YRC, and RRC units aim to establish a relationship with society through awareness campaigns and special camps on social issues.

The Equal Opportunity Cell and Women's Development Cell seek to create awareness of gender equality among the students. The Eco Club, the Consumer Council, and the Institution's Innovation Council play a major role in integrating social values and professional ethics.

The college continuously strives to instill in our students a sense of social, moral, spiritual, and cultural values that ensure student transformation for success in business, the classroom, and society at large.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

Our college is particularly interested in determining the students' levels of learning through the use of efficient teaching and learning techniques. Students' learning ability will be evaluated based on their attendance and the grades they earned in their exams. Students, achieve above 60% performance tests are considered active learners. Slow learners are those who fall below 40% of their results, whereas medium learners are those who score between 60% and 40%.

Active students are driven to work more in order to attain higher university rankings, and extra care is taken to better prepare them for the workforce. Medium-level students are advised to focus more on obtaining good marks. Slow learners are advised to study the materials and notes provided in classroom lectures, and more practical sessions are held to insist them to study well in order to get the minimum marks in all subjects. The faculties also identify slow learners and take appropriate remedial measures to help them cope with their studies.

To assist our students in focusing on their studies and developing their character, regular mentoring and counseling sessions are held. Twice-monthly parent meetings are also held to inform and assist parents in getting their children to pay attention to their studies. To increase students' mental learning ability, a variety of skill-development guest lectures are organised. It assisted the students in overcoming their pandemic stress and helped them become more focused on their capacity to learn.

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

Our Institution helps students develop their views, attitudes, and most recent knowledge through various creative activities by the departments that foster students' creativity and provide them problem - solving skills. Many Experiential Learning courses are included in the curriculum, such as project work, that provides our students with more hands-on exposure.

Students are encouraged to participate in a variety of intra- and intercollegiate competitions. The institution organises industrial tours and exhibitions to make the students understand the real world and to spark visitors' interest. Attending a workshop that encourages students to think creatively is like giving them the opportunity to learn something new from professional experienced peers and skills to share with them.

Students are encouraged to join various clubs to demonstrate their abilities, while also enhancing their social duties in teams through NSS and other service groups. The mental approach of learning serves as explanation for their performance. In a nutshell, the college is more concerned with the overall development of its pupils.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

As per the university's instructions, the college adheres to formal procedures. The CIE is part of the teaching and learning process. It is blended with day to day teaching. But formally, the college examination cell conducts the first internal examination after 40 working days, the second internal examination after 60 working days, and the model examination after 75 working days. The period of examination is informed to students well in advance through the diary the schedule is given to students a week before the tests. The first two tests are for 2 hours, and the model exams follow the pattern of university examinations. The question papers are collected from the concerned departments, printed, and distributed on the day of the examination. The internal mark is given considering his attendance, completion of assignments, and performance in the internal examinations. The valued answer scripts are given to the students, and transparency is maintained. The students are encouraged to discuss their answer scripts, and they are given suitable guidelines to improve their performance. The absentees are given a chance on request, and their performance is considered for CIE. The internal marks are uploaded to the university portal.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time-bound and efficient

The internal examinations are to facilitate the students' better performance in the university examinations. The internal examinations are practise sessions for the students. The questions following the university pattern, evolution in time, and discussion on the performance are all aimed at the objectives. On request, absentees and poor performers with valid reasons are given a chance. If any concern is expressed, it is sorted out in a smooth manner. Mentors, the grievance redressal committee, the head of the department, and the principal are there to settle any problems. So far, no major issue has been raised.

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Programme and course outcomes for all Programmes offered by the institution are stated and displayed on website and communicated to teachers and students.

Since the college is associated with Periyar University Salem, it uses the university's curriculum. The curriculum framework of the university includes programme outcomes, programme specific outcomes, and course outcomes. Many faculty members of our college contributed as board of study members. It is displayed on the university website for public inspection.

All interested parties may view the curriculum as well as POs and COs on the college website. The students and teachers are provided with a printed copy of the curriculum relevant to them. During induction class, the students are informed of the programme's outcome. At the start of the academic year, the college makes sure to inform all faculties and students about the COs. To enhance their knowledge and abilities, the following courses are available: 1. Foundation Tamil and English; 2. Core Course; 3. Elective Course; 4. Skill-based Elective Course; and 5. Extra-Disciplinary Course. The CBCS curriculum gives students options and allows them the chance to choose their courses for elective papers. With skill-based education, the institution offers improved knowledge, and subsequent exercises have taken the form of outcome-based education.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

As the institution is an affiliated institution, the affiliating Periyar university has established parameters to assure the attainment of PO and CO. The CIA and University External Examination measure the achievement of the PO, PSO, and CO in a consistent manner. The grades earned on formative and summative assessments are the direct indicators of attainment of particular COs. The graduate programs utilize a credit-based system of continuous evaluation. The CGPA is one of the most essential indicators of the degree of PSO fulfillment. A candidate's CGPA is determined by averaging the Grade Points earned for all semesters and courses completed prior to a given academic term. Before students conclude their degree program, the PSO are assessed using a feedback system. Similarly, PO are evaluated based on feedback from alumni and parents. The feedback of teachers is collected in order to evaluate the curriculum provided by the affiliated university. Through the BOS member of the college who attends the university's periodic BOS meeting, the constructive feedback on the subject's learning capacity is transmitted to the university as a request for further action in order to make the subject syllabus more user-friendly.

4.2 - Library as a Learning Resource

4.2.1 - Library is automated using Integrated Library Management System (ILMS)

The library is the foundation of any thriving institution. Recognizing the importance of a well-equipped library to the institution's development, the institution believes in increasing the library's needs annually. Our college's library was established in 1962. Green library concept is implemented in a beautiful edifice surrounded by nature's bounty. It is separated into sections such as the research section, the reference section, the periodical section, and the e-library. The library is completely computerized using Modern LIB Automation software. 2016's version 2.0 of the software has a partially automated nature. This year the software is updated to make the library fully automated. The library's annual subscription to N-List has been renewed. There are approximately 49405 volumes in the library on various topics. College students also have access to the Book Bank, where they can borrow the required textbooks. It subscribes to numerous periodicals and publications. It has a distinct computer section with six Internet-capable computers for accessing e-resources.

4.4.2 - There are established systems and procedures for maintaining and utilizing physical, academic and support facilities - laboratory, library, sports complex, computers, classrooms etc.

Excellent sports, library, and lab facilities. The Supervisor controls the workers and keeps duty files for the Superintendent with block-specific assignments, schedules, leave, etc. Each block's housekeeping staff cleans classrooms, faculty rooms, seminar halls, and laboratories to make learning comfortable. Every block and classroom has dustbins and sufficient clean restrooms. Gardeners maintain campus. Full-time electricians maintain generators, air conditioners, and water purifiers. In-house plumbers and workers fix issues fast. Outside technicians are hired if needed. System administrators' lab assistants fix computers. Laboratory assistants maintain charts, equipment, and more. Teachers review sibling department work and submit the report to the Principal at year's end. Semester-end HOD requests plan for next semester.

- Restrooms are regularly examined.
  - Lab technicians maintain science and computer equipment. Monitoring preventive maintenance. (UP Sand Batteries, Generator Electrical Maintenance)
  - Fire extinguishers are regularly checked.
- Specialists called for in case of major flaws.
- As per the centralized purchase procedure, the replacement of any equipment is done. • All laboratories receive uninterrupted power from a 110 kVA and 63 kVA power house. Proper grounding is done.
  - Campus electricians supervise the contractors and equipment.

5.3.2 - Institution facilitates students' representation and engagement in various administrative, co-curricular and extracurricular activities (student council/ students representation on various bodies as per established processes and norms )

The college's student council operates effectively, and its officers are nominated annually. The student council chairman is nominated by seniors and the secretary by second-year students. Each class has a representative who speaks for the class's pupils. Besides Students are members of all committees, including the academic council, IQAC, Cini club, Reading club, etc., where they are encouraged to make suggestions and participate in the formulation and implementation of policies. Students organise events at both the department and college levels. Students' council meets twice per semester, discusses issues, and ensures active student participation in academic and extracurricular activities. Several onstage and offstage competitions are also held annually at the annual Inter Departmental meet. Students are responsible for organising events and competitions such as the Sports and Cultural Meet, International Yoga Day, Blood Donation Camp, Women's Day, Club Activities, Intercollegiate and Short Film Competitions, and Awareness Programmes. To foster the development of the students' talents, each club is represented by student Secretaries, Joint Secretaries, and Treasurers. Assigning individuals to positions of authority improves their leadership qualities. In addition, representatives from each class will be chosen, and they will organise programmes to enhance their overall development.

5.4 - Alumni Engagement

5.4.1 - There is a registered Alumni Association that contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and/or other support services

The Alumni Association at Kandaswami Kandar's College functions to strengthen ties between alumni and the institution. Through interaction, financial aid, counselling, and job placement, the alumni provide assistance to the students. The Alumni Association's goals and objectives are to promote the exchange of experience and the dissemination of knowledge and talents among its members and students, to conduct seminars, conferences, workshops, and other academic activities, and to maintain contact with each other, college faculty, and non-teaching staff, in addition to students. Each department has an impressive Alumni contact, which graduating students are invited to join. Alumni gatherings at the department level provide a forum for sharing the success stories of the alumni. It facilitates positive interactions between alumni and current students. Our alumni provide opportunities for our final-year students within their own organisations, as well as leveraging their contacts to provide opportunities in other organisations they are familiar with. Additionally, they conduct training and interactive sessions to prepare students for employment. Alumni of distinction are invited to deliver motivational speeches and serve as resource persons for seminars and workshops. Alumni of our college are genuine ambassadors who bridge the divide between academia and the business world. Our organisation has provided service for decades.

6.5.2 - The institution reviews its teaching learning process, structures & methodologies of operations and learning outcomes at periodic intervals through IQAC set up as per norms and recorded the incremental improvement in various activities

The IQAC continuously evaluates and takes measures to enhance the teaching-learning process's quality. The Academic Calendar is displayed, disseminated throughout the institution, and rigorously adhered to. The IQAC holds recurring meetings. At each stage of the academic year, the Council, which consists of the principal and the Heads of the various departments in the presence of the IQAC coordinator, discusses academic progress. Annually, the IQAC conducts AAA with an external expert. Analyses of feedbacks are conducted. On the premise of the AAA report and feedback, subsequent actions were taken to improve the quality of teaching and learning processes. The formation of committees is based on designated, monitored objectives. The CDC reviewed and endorsed the decisions made by the departments. IQAC has insisted that the integration of ICT tools into the teaching-learning process is essential. Through N-List, access to electronic journals is encouraged. The IQAC has paved the path for the continuous development of the teaching-learning process through this review system.

In order to facilitate the learning process, broadband internet and Wi-Fi have been enhanced. IQAC has periodically taken the initiative to train both teaching and non-teaching faculties. The educational use of social media to establish communication with students and peers has also been emphasised.

7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the Institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within 200 words) Solid waste management Liquid waste management Biomedical waste management E-waste management Waste recycling system Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

The management of college waste was effective. All refuse on campus is disposed of according to a set schedule. Solid Waste:

Popular access points have colored bins to facilitate the separation of biodegradable and nonbiodegradable waste. Biodegradable waste from green receptacles is placed in a Vermi composting pit to produce garden fertilizer. Daily, the panchayat empties non-biodegradable trash from red receptacles. In restrooms, sanitary napkins are safely incinerated. Office management encourages paper minimization. Social media is used to disseminate official communications. There are distinct WhatsApp groups for seminars, conferences, and intercollegiate meets. Only necessary official documents are retained. Green Pledge posters displayed on college walls encourage campus hygiene. Wastewater Management:

Water point effluent is used for horticulture. All blocks are equipped with rainwater collection systems and points that enhance groundwater. Regularly, maintenance inspects the drainage system. Control E-Waste:

E-waste is decreased by maintaining, upgrading, servicing, repurposing, and refurbishing computers and electrical and electronic waste components. Electronic equipment and products are annually inspected. The local government provides institutions with upgraded computers. Cartridges are used and replaced in laser printers.

7.1.9 - Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

The college organizes numerous programs to educate faculty, staff, and students on their constitutional duties as responsible Indian citizens. The college, NCC, NSS and other committees celebrate important national festivals such as Independence Day, Republic Day, Constitution Day, and the birthdays of India's great leaders, during which eminent resource persons deliver motivational lectures and educate students and faculty on the values, rights, duties, and responsibilities of citizenship.

The aforementioned concepts are integrated into the curriculum. The curriculum covers the values of Gender Equality and Empowerment, Integrity in Public Life and National Integration, and the Foundations of Human Rights. Some departments have incorporated key aspects of the Indian Constitution, with particular emphasis on the Preamble and the Fundamental Rights.

On January 30, all faculty, staff, and students take the Pledge against Untouchability on Martyr's Day from their houses. On Anti-Terrorism Day (21 May), Anti-Child Labour Day (12 June) on 11, June, Communal Harmony Day (20 August), and National Integration Day (19 November), pledges are also taken. Constitutional obligations are brought to the attention of college students.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

1. Practice Title: "Women's Empowerment"

Objectives:

- Gender sensitization
- To empower girls with physical and emotional strength, raise civic rights knowledge, and help pupils develop a sense of culture, ethics, morality, social duties, self-esteem, and self-confidence.

Context:

The college Women Development Committee, along with NGOs and other groups, conducted self-defense, health and hygiene, legal knowledge, and home and hotel management workshops to empower women.

Practice:

- Seminar
- Competition
- Vocational Training
- Counseling
- Employment

Challenges faced:

Rural background pupils

Resources Required:

Women activists and more NGO's are needed.

2. Practice Title: "Undergraduate Internship Program"

Objectives:

To give students outside-of-classroom learning experiences and prepare them for careers and future studies

Context:

Classroom theory for academic and vocational success

Internships bridge college and career.

Practice:

Students or instructors organize internships with employers.

Students arrange employer interviews at mutual convenience and must complete 120 hours of internship training over 15 days.

Interns do their internship duties and submit the report and employer evaluation form at the college internship viva-voce for credits.

Challenges Faced:

1. Lack of organizations to accommodate all eligible students
2. Local entrepreneurs are unfamiliar with internships.

Resources Required:

Typically, external stakeholders, like business organizations, provide the physical resources.

Through careful resource allocation and planning, the college makes lab facilities available to science students.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

The Kandaswami Kandar's College values rural socioeconomic development and education. The college's objective, vision, and focus are to give students a high-quality, needs-based education, access to higher education, and practical experiences to advance holistically. The college has helped thousands of students develop and respect the institution, state, and nation. The institution's best Page 69/70 30-06-2023 03:57:19 Annual Quality Assurance Report of KANDASWAMI KANDAR'S COLLEGE students have excelled in academic, social, political, and sports domains. Commerce, science, life science, and the humanities complement the college's specialty. NCC, NSS, and YRC undertake extensions. The college's infrastructure and facilities have grown to meet higher education's changing needs and demands. The college's teaching, learning, and evaluation processes are supported by good facilities. The college has enough classrooms and a well-equipped administrative office, science laboratories, research labs, computer labs, language labs, a central library, departmental libraries, a net café, a students' store, an auditorium, a seminar hall, an indoor stadium, sports facilities, a placement cell, ICT equipment and peripherals, etc. to support curricular, co-curricular, and extra-curricular activities. IT components are used effectively in teaching, learning, and evaluation by teachers and students. The college prioritizes student support and higher education. It provides welfare programs, scholarships, an alumni association, mentoring, a canteen, transportation, remedial coaching, endowment scholarships, prizes, installment payment of fees, and special incentives for NCC cadets and sportspersons.
