

REPORT ON WOMEN'S DAY CELEBRATION 08.03.2023

The Women's Day celebration was organized at Kandaswami Kandar's College, Velur-Namakkal, on 8th March 2023, to honor and appreciate the contributions of women to society. The event was graced by the presence of P. Kowsalya, Deputy Collector, Tiruchengode, who was invited as the chief guest. Mrs.Kowsalya, who has been an ardent advocate for women's rights and empowerment, delivered a special address on the occasion.

Dr. M. Angayaranni, Associate professor and & Head Department of Mathematics, welcomed the gathering, highlighting the significance of Women's Day and the need to empower women in all spheres of life.

Dr.N.Thangaraj, The Principal of Kandaswami Kandar's College delivered a Presidential address, in his address he emphasized the need to break the stereotypes and create a world where women can excel in their chosen fields. He spoke about the various challenges faced by women and how the college is committed to empowering them through education and training.

Dr.R. Somasundaram.M.D., The President & Secretary of Kandasami Kandar's College, graced the occasion. In his address, appreciated the commended efforts of the Women Development Cell in organizing the event. He spoke about the various initiatives taken by the college to empower women, such as providing scholarships, organizing training programs, and promoting entrepreneurship among women. His speech also emphasized the need to create a society that values and respects women and provides them with equal opportunities in all spheres of life. He urged the students to take inspiration from the women achievers and work towards creating a better future for themselves and the society.

Dr. S. Parvathi, Assistant Professor of Economics & Convenor of Women Development Cell, introduced the Chief Guest, Mrs.P.Kowsalya, Deputy Collector, Tiruchengode, to the gathering. She highlighted the achievements and contributions of the Chief Guest to society and how her life is an inspiration to young women.

The Principal, Dr.N.Thangaraj, and Dr. M. Angayaranni, Associate professor and & Head Department of Mathematics felicitated the Chief Guest,Mrs.P.Kowsalya, Deputy Collector, with a shall and memento, as a mark of respect and appreciation for her valuable presence.

The chief guest Mrs.P.Kowsalya, Deputy Collector, Tiruchengode, delivered a cherished special address. In her speech, the deputy collector, emphasized the importance of women's education and their active participation in all fields, including politics, science, and sports. She also urged the audience to recognize and appreciate the contribution of women in various aspects of life. The chief guest also talked about the various initiatives taken by the government to promote women's welfare and empowerment. She highlighted the importance of schemes such as Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao, and Mahila Shakti. She also shared her personal experiences and challenges faced as a woman in a male-dominated profession. She encouraged the girl student to break stereotypes and pursue their dreams without any fear or prejudice.

The special address delivered by the chief guest was a powerful and motivating to the young women present at the event. She spoke about how women have the potential to achieve great things if given the opportunity and the right resources. She emphasized the need to break free from the traditional mindset and encourage women to take up leadership positions. She also spoke about the importance of education and urged the students to focus on their studies and strive for excellence. She encouraged them to dream big and work hard to achieve their goals.

Report on prize distribution to winners of various competitions

To recognize and appreciate the winners of the various competitions which were conducted as a part of women's day celebration to bring out their hidden talents and showcase their skills, prizes and appreciation certificates were distributed to the winners. The winners of the competitions were called on stage and awarded prizes by the chief guest and other dignitaries. Participation certificates were also issued to all participants.

The chief guest congratulated the winners and appreciated the efforts of the college in promoting the overall development of its students.

The winners expressed their gratitude to the college for providing them with a platform to showcase their talent and thanked the faculty for their support and guidance in their endeavors. The winners' dedication and hard work were acknowledged by the college, and their achievements were an inspiration to their peers.

Apart from the competitions, special awards were given to students who excelled in academics, extracurricular activities, and community service. These awards were a recognition of the students' overall contribution to the college and society.

Report on Cultural programme

The primary objective of the cultural events was to use the medium of dance to celebrate women's accomplishments, raise awareness about gender equality, and inspire positive change in society. The performances aimed to showcase the strength, resilience, and diversity of women through creative and captivating choreography.

Dance Performances:

The Women's Day celebration featured a series of dance performances that encompassed various styles, themes, and messages. The highlights of the dance events are as follows:

1 Traditional Dance:

The program began with traditional dances that paid homage to the rich cultural heritage of the region. Students adorned in vibrant costumes performed classical and folk dances, showcasing the elegance and grace of traditional dance forms. These performances not only celebrated the cultural traditions but also emphasized the role of women in preserving and promoting their cultural heritage.

Contemporary Dance:

The contemporary dance segment aimed to connect with the modern audience and address relevant social issues. The dancers conveyed powerful messages related to women's empowerment, gender equality, and breaking societal stereotypes. Choreographed to popular music, these performances used expressive movements to captivate the audience and evoke emotions related to the struggles and triumphs of women.

3 Fusion Dance:

Fusion dance acts combined elements of various dance forms, such as classical, folk, and modern styles, to create unique and engaging performances. The fusion of different dance techniques symbolized the diverse roles women play in society and highlighted the importance of inclusivity and collaboration. These performances showcased the creativity and versatility of the dancers, leaving a lasting impact on the audience.

4 Group Performances:

Group dance performances involved coordinated and synchronized movements, displaying the unity and strength of women. These acts showcased teamwork, precision, and a shared passion for dance. The group performances celebrated the power of collective action, emphasizing that united efforts can lead to significant positive change.

5 Solo Performances:

Solo dance performances provided an opportunity for individual dancers to showcase their talent, express their personal stories, and convey powerful messages. These performances highlighted the unique journeys and experiences of women, inspiring others to embrace their individuality and pursue their dreams fearlessly.

