

KANDASWAMI KANDAR'S COLLEGE, VELUR-NAMAKKAL

WOMEN DEVELOPMENT CELL

REPORT ON LEGAL AWARENESS PROGRAMME FOR WOMEN

Women Development Cell of Kandaswami Kandar's College, Velur -Namakkal organised a Legal Awareness programme on 26.05.2022 at 11.00 am as a part of the gender sensitization programme at Auditorium. The awareness programme began with a thamizhthai valthu. Dr. P.Thamizhchelvi, Assistant Professor and Head, Department of History, welcomed the august gathering. The Principal in charge, Dr .K.Raju delivered the presidential address, in his address he highlighted the value and importance of women's safety laws. Dr .P.Santhi, Associate Professor of English gave the felicitation. The chief guest was introduced by Dr.S.Parvathi, convener of Women Development cell and Assistant Professor of Economics.

The chief guest Ms.K.Vijayalakshmi BA., BL.,Advocate, Bhavani Court, gave a remarkable speech on the importance of laws, especially for women. She quoted many practical examples to enable the girl students to understand the legal provisions ensuring women rights in India. She also explained constitutional rights guaranteed to women in India, and how they will be helpful in protecting women in their various walks of life. Around 500 students from various departments took part in this awareness programme. The awareness programme enhanced their knowledge of women's legal rights. The girl students raised many queries on legal provisions, the advocate clarified all their queries. Ms. B.Kavitha, Assistant Professor of Commerce gave the vote of thanks and the meeting came to end with National Anthem by the students.

